3. Summer School on China Studies Tradition and Innovation, from 7 to 20 July 2019 <https://international.unitn.it/summer-school-china-studies>

4. Winter School on Physics of the Cell, from 19 January to 1 February 2020 <https://international.unitn.it/winter-school-physics-cell>

All the international short-term programs are in English and grant the award of a Transcript of Records certifying 6 ECTS (+ 2 possible additional credits for optional extra work).

The teaching methodology is both in classroom and outside UniTrento spaces. Several visits are being organized and there will be place for excursions and social activities too!

The reduced participation cost reserved for your students is 450 euros (instead of 1.000) and is inclusive of accommodation in single room, all meals (except for breakfast), entrance to main museums, bus pass and social program. No additional fees are due for nominated students.

For the Summer Schools, nominations by partner universities are due by 15 March 2019 (mailto: international@unitn.it).

After nomination, all students are expected to finalize their application by 31 March 2019 through the on-line system which will be available in February together with a provisional program.

For the Winter School, the deadline for nominations will be mid-September (students' application is due by 30 September).

Each STP will be activated with a minimum of 10 participants.

In addition to these, more STPs will be available at UniTrento. You can check the updates in the next few weeks on page <http://international.unitn.it/incoming/summer-and-winter-schools>
